“ Joe was a faith,smart,kind hearty,care,concerning,a friend,a man of his words,a joker that like to express in marvoul's way,he was a eye open,a heart open, and most of all he was one of the. Realist young man I forever knew! He had a smile for every lil time I saw him,he was well known and love by many, to the family I m here today and everyday for you with must love,kindness,support spirit,prayer, knowledge,peace, comfort,concerning and most all help and honoring the legacy of life of Joe! The family is in my daily prayers in GOF whom we trust!

“ I remember when I first met Joe. The first time seemed like it was a life time. I met him through my husband William Jones. He laughed and how you find William Jones he crazy lol. So generous, loving and just very friendly to people he met for the first time. He was well loved by so many people and my brother in-law and his friend from Cleveland Ohio sends their condolences they said they had never met a young man like him that had love for a person they never. Until this day they still talks highly of him. He always call my husband's full name William Jones lol. RIL my friend and prayers and strength for his family.
