“ I entered your life through my best friend and your granddaughter, Tracey, over 20 years ago and not once did you ever make me feel like I wasn't family. I once heard the expression that 'family isn't always blood' and being a member of your family has been one of the best things that has ever happened to me. I'll always remember your smile and your kindness and your laid back approach to life. I'll especially remember the laugh that we all got at your expense when we played Phase 10 and you proudly announced that you had the right cards, but didn't. I can still remember your laugh when I pointed out your mistake. That was a good memory for sure. Another one of my favorite memories of you was when I first went to your house in Marianna. I had never been that far in a small town and was surprised that places like that even existed. What you didn't know is that moment was forever planted in my memory as a key event because I understood that you don't have to be surrounded by things and big buildings to be happy. Life is truly what you make it and I know you made the most of yours. You were surrounded by lots of love and appreciation and will be missed greatly. Holidays will be hard without you but we will always remember and cherish the memories we made with you. If love could have kept you here, you would have lived for a million years. Love you, Angela.

“ When I moved to Marianna from Little Rock with you and Granddad I thought it was going to be the worse thing in the world living the country. Oh how I was wrong being there with you guys taught me the true meaning of unconditional love, developing a good character and morals. Making me the person I am today. You always told me how special I was and how much you loved me and was proud of me. I'm so glad we got to spend more time together during your last few years. Im going to miss you sitting in the recliner saying you not sleep but asking me what happened on the tv show we were watching, lol. This has been one of the hardest things I've had to do, but I know I got what it take to make it through because I got it from the best. Grandma you severed us well so you get your rest now. Like I always tell you " no worries Grandma I got it" so you rest up. Well Granddad there so know telling whats going on and don't be up there fussing with Larry lol. I love you to infinity and beyond. Love your Ms Boo

The Bible tells us to rejoice when a love one goes home, and to Weep when they come in. Although it's hard to rejoice when I love one does go home. We know that they are in a better place and this I am sure of.
